COMMENTS FROM THE PUBLIC

PRELIMINARY HEARINGS

Sign Ordinance revisions

President G. Stone explained that the Supreme Court has mandated that signage could no longer be controlled with regard to content. A group is working on revising The Chesterton Sign Ordinance. They would be revising any qualifications that related to what was on the sign. There had been a few suggestions made since the last meeting. There was some additional conversation about signage.

Attorneys would be taking a closer look at suggestions. Additional revisions would be forthcoming.

Member J. Trout moved to continue the preliminary hearing on this matter seconded by member F. Owens and passed by unanimous voice vote.
