Badger!

The Husky puppy's name is Badger.

And his dad just pick him at the town hall to bring him home, safe and sound.

Thank you, good folks at the Porter town hall, for your warm heart on a bitterly cold day.

Who's a good boy? Who's a very good boy?

This fella is, a male Husky puppy wearing a training collar, who's not only a good boy but was probably a cold boy when he jumped into a Good Samaritan's car in Downtown Porter this morning, Wednesday, Jan. 26.

The pup is currently in the very safe keeping of the folks at the Porter town hall, 303 Franklin St.

If this fella's your best buddy or you know to whom he belongs, call the Porter town hall at 926-2771.

And be sure, when you bring him home, to give him a pat-pat from the Public Affairs Liaison.
